- Upon submitting your claim, you will see a screen in which you will need to certify. After reading the information, click “I certify.”

You can submit this form if you are either the claimant or, if certain attachments are sent along with this application form, the claimant’s VA power of attorney (POA). Note that if you are requesting burial expenses on a VA Form 21-530 on behalf of a firm or other unpaid creditor, you must send the attachment noted in the Claimant Certification box below. If you are the claimant, read the section below entitled “Claimant Certification.” If you are the POA, read the section entitled “POA Certification.” You may submit this form only if the certification provisions below are met.

Claimant Certification: Your application cannot be submitted electronically to VA until, in lieu of your signature, you certify that you are the claimant by clicking on the “I Certify” button below.

In addition to certifying you are the claimant, when you click on the “I Certify” button, you are certifying the statements on this form are true and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief.

Power of Attorney (POA) Certification: The claimant’s application cannot be submitted electronically to VA unless you attach the following documents:

A properly executed POA Form 21-22 or 21-22a, if one is not on record with the VA, and the application signature page signed by the claimant, if you are filing an application form which requires the claimant’s signature. This includes but is not limited to VA Forms 21-526 and 21-530.

By clicking on the “I Certify” button, you are certifying that the statements on this form are true and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief.

Penalty: The law provides severe penalties which include fine or imprisonment, or both, for the willful submission of any statement or evidence of a material fact, knowing it to be false, or for the fraudulent acceptance of any payment which you are not entitled to.

I certify cancel

- The final steps for your application include:
 - Keeping a copy of your confirmation number (as shown below)
 - If you have any additional documents you need to send to the VA, please submit to the address (as shown below)
 - Keep a copy of all records

Congratulations! Your application has been sent successfully to VA. The confirmation information on this page is very important so print and keep this page for your records. The confirmation information shows your confirmation number and the VA Regional Office name and address which will receive and review your application. You should also use the print paper form button to print out a copy of your application for your records.

It is possible that this office may transfer your application to a different office. If this is done, you will be told about this by e-mail, telephone, or by regular mail. But unless you get this transfer notice, direct all your questions and mail to the office shown on this page.
